

Scripture | 2 Corinthians 5:11-6:2

- Ice Breaker |
1. When was the last time you experienced something new? What was it? If you can't think of anything, share why you haven't experienced anything new in a while.
 2. Sometimes, we are nervous about trying new things; why do you think that is?

- Going Deeper |
1. Is there anything that stood out to you from Sunday's message, or do you have any questions?
 2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:11-6:2
 3. What do you think Paul is trying to address in verses 11-15?
 4. Why do you think the Corinthian church has a hard time understanding why Paul behaves the way he does?
 5. According to verses 11-15, why does Paul behave as he does?
 6. What does it mean to "regard people from a worldly point of view (v16)?"
 7. Why should we not see people that way, according to Paul?
 8. What does it look like to be a new creation?
 9. How does being a new creation affect your perspective on life?
 10. What does it mean to be a "minister of reconciliation" based on our understanding of who Jesus is and who we are?
 11. How can you live out your purpose of being a minister of reconciliation in your life?
 12. When you think about the church or Christians, do you think we are living as new creations, or do we tend to hold a worldly point of view still?
