Scripture | Luke 2:1-21

Ice Breaker |

1. What brings you the most joy?
2. How do you navigate busyness during the holiday season or in your daily life?

Going Deeper |

1. Is there anything that stood out to you from Sunday's message, or do you have questions?
2. What is joy and how is it similar or different from happiness?
3. How does joy present itself in your life?
4. Read Luke 2:1-21
5. What was happening in the world at the time of Luke's account of Jesus birth?
6. Why is it important to consider the historical context of Jesus' birth?
7. How does the historical setting of Jesus birth impact your view of the Christmas story?
8. Reflect on the journey of Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. How does their experience relate to the challenges we face in our own lives?
9. Explore the role of the shepherds in the Christmas story. Why do you think they were chosen to be the recipients of the angelic message?
10. Why was the message from the angel good news?
11. Discuss the shepherds' response to seeing Jesus. How did their actions, such as spreading the word, demonstrate the impact of encountering the Savior?
12. When was the last time you shared with someone who Jesus is and why it makes a difference in your life? Is sharing about your relationship with Jesus something that is easy for you to do or a challenge?
13. What can we learn from the shepherds' response to the announcement of Jesus' birth? How can you follow the shepherds' example and share your encounters with Jesus with others?
