Scripture | John 3:1-15

Ice Breaker |

1. Are you more of a night owl or an early bird?
2. If you had the opportunity for a 'nighttime conversation' with Jesus, what would be the one burning question or topic you would want to discuss with him?"

Going Deeper |

1. Is there anything that stood out to you from Sunday's message, or do you have any questions?
2. Read John 3:1-15
3. Why do you think Nicodemus came to Jesus at night?
4. Nicodemus may have gone to Jesus at night because he didn't want anyone to know he was going to see him. Have you ever felt a similar hesitation or curiosity about exploring your faith?
5. Based on the conversation between Jesus and Nicodemus in John 3:1-18, what does it mean to be born again?
6. Why do you think Jesus chose to discuss the concept of being born again with Nicodemus?
7. How might understanding the concept of being born again impact your own spiritual life?
8. In verses 14 and 15 Jesus uses the analogy of the snake in the wilderness from Numbers 21:4-9. What does it mean? What can we understand about receiving eternal life based on that story?
9. Pastor Rob emphasizes that only Jesus can provide the salvation and wholeness that individuals seek. How does this understanding change your approach to faith and your relationship with Jesus?
10. Why is it important to remember that religious practices, knowledge, and attendance at church alone cannot save a person?
11. Jesus explains to Nicodemus that being born again means experiencing a spiritual rebirth, a transformation in which God works anew in a person's life. In what ways have you experienced or hope to experience spiritual rebirth in your own life?
